

Short term assignment opportunity at TIDE

Assignment description:

Assist strategy team at TIDE with data collection & documentation, proposal writing, training module creation, and website content creation.

Scope of assignment

- Undertake research and secondary data collection on specific sections in proposals / pitches; design primary surveys where required
- Assist Strategy team in proposal writing and funder communication
- Prepare structured digital skill training modules with multimedia features, using available content at TIDE.
- Create website content based on existing materials

Essential requirements

- Science / technology aptitude is a must.
- Excellent writing skills including ability to create charts, infographics, etc
- Should be able to interact with different team members at TIDE for content validation
- Exposure to training requirements and digital modules on training
- Highly conversant with digital tools
- Familiar with website content requirements

We encourage graduate students looking for internship or those in gap year to apply.

Duration : Minimum 3 months (60 person days full time or part time). Extendable based on quality of work and requirement at TIDE

Location : TIDE office at Bengaluru; Virtual working with weekly visit to TIDE may also be considered

Pay : Rs 750-1000 per person day (8 hours) depending on mode of working and qualification / experience

Starting date : Immediate

Interested candidates may please send a mail to Santhosh.cibi@tide-india.org with the subject title 'Application for short term assignment at TIDE', explaining why we should consider you for the above assignment, along with your resume.